Dear Matt,

The Ecological Landscaping Association (ELA) just held its 14th Annual Conference and Eco-Marketplace at the MassMutual Center on March 6 – 8. It was an outstanding success. Every comment we heard or solicited through written evaluation was positive about the facility and the menu – a first for us. Mark Gervais helped to make that happen. Everyone, exhibitors and attendees alike, had an easy time moving in and out of the facility. Any small problem that developed was quickly resolved. Only those organizing the event even knew the problems existed. The event could not have run smoother.

On behalf of the Board of Directors for the Ecological Landscaping Association, I would like to let you know that Mark was an essential part of the coordination and smooth running of our event this year. We look forward to working with him next year.

Sincerely,

Dennis Collins
President,
